AG'S FUGITIVE APPREHENSION UNIT ARRESTS MAN FOR NON-PAYMENT OF CHILD SUPPORT

(Baton Rouge, LA)---The Louisiana Attorney General's Office Fugitive Apprehension Unit (FAU), working with the East Baton Rouge Parish Sheriff's Office, East Baton Rouge District Attorney's Office, and Baton Rouge Crimestoppers, today arrested Samuel McCray of Baton Rouge as a fugitive from the Sheriff's Office for non-payment of child support. He is allegedly in arrears of over $130,000 of child support payments. The suspect was arrested on an outstanding warrant from 2007. He was booked into East Baton Rouge Parish Prison.

The penalty for failure to pay a legal child support obligation when the amount of the arrearage is more than fifteen thousand dollars and the obligation has been outstanding for at least one year shall be a fine of not more than twenty-five hundred dollars, or imprisonment with or without hard labor for not more than two years, or both.

The Louisiana Department of Justice Fugitive Apprehension Unit was created under Attorney General Buddy Caldwell for the purpose of assisting local law enforcement agencies in locating and apprehending fugitives from justice. Since the unit was established in 2008, over 300 fugitive arrests have been made. The FAU is dedicated to assisting local law enforcement agencies in locating and arresting wanted individuals who either cannot be located by the local agency, or where the suspect is believed to be located in a jurisdiction other than
